Make a Bequest for Future Generations

We all want to leave behind a better planet for future generations. You can support this vision for years to come by including Texas Campaign for the Environment Fund (TCE Fund) in your will. A gift through your will not only leaves behind your legacy and commitment to a healthier environment, it also allows you to give beyond your current means and amplify your impact.

If you are considering making a bequest to TCE Fund, contact us at vic@texasenvironment.org or 512-326-5658 so we can help explain your options and describe the process. If you've already included us in your will, please let us know so that we can say thank you!

A bequest is a gift made through a will or a living trust. It's the most popular and easiest planned gift, and it costs nothing during your lifetime. A bequest can be included in a new will or added to an existing will or living trust through a simple amendment—often without the expense of hiring a lawyer.

You can give a general, specific, residuary, or contingent bequest. Since TCE Fund is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, you may be able to reduce your estate taxes. We recommend consulting a financial advisor to determine the role of your bequest in your estate planning.

- General bequest is a gift of a specific amount to a specific person or entity. This is the most common type of bequest. For example, you could give $10,000 to TCE Fund.
- Specific bequest is a gift of a specific item or asset to a specific person or entity. While in a general bequest, only the value of the gift is important, in a specific bequest, the item or asset itself is important. The bequest should describe in detail the specific item or asset being given so that it is unmistakable. For example, you could give your real estate, located at 1 Main Street, Anytown, Texas, or you could give your 500 shares of stock of XYZ Corporation.
- Residuary bequest is a gift of all or a portion of the remainder of your assets after all other bequests have been made as well as debts and taxes have been paid. For example, you could give TCE Fund 20% of your assets remaining after gifts have been made to all of your other beneficiaries.
- Contingent bequest is a gift made on the condition of a certain event that might or might not happen. Most commonly, the condition is that your primary beneficiary passes away before you. Contingent bequests can be specific, general, or residuary. For example, you could give $10,000 to TCE Fund if your spouse passes away before you.
